

Printmaking sketchbook

Characteristics Page

for each chapter in your book you will be completing a characteristics page that includes your written responses

Examine historical and contemporary examples of the specific type of print you are about to make and answer in your own words the following questions:

How would you describe the way this kind of print looks?

What are some reasons why someone might choose this particular medium?

A print in in this medium would be successful if it?